Alaska weather is unpredictable so prepare for the unexpected.
Dressing in layers is important for comfort.

Clothing Suggestions

- A good raincoat or waterproof wading jacket
- Polar fleece jacket or hooded sweatshirt (hooded and wind proof are best)
- Medium weight jacket
- One undershirt for each day
- 3 Shirts of varying weights that can likely be worn several times
- 3 Pair of pants
- 2 pair of long underwear (for under your waders)
- Socks for each day including boot socks if needed
- Fishing gloves (neoprene, cotton, or polar fleece)
- Hat/hats for additional sun protection
- Waterproof day pack (could be used as carry on for flight)
- One pair of chest high waders and boots (Felt soles are banned in Alaska)
- Camp shoes – running shoes, short boots or moccasins for after fishing wear

Miscellaneous Suggestions

- Bug spray with deet
- Shaving kit with toiletries
- Sunscreen / Chapstick
- Hand cream
- Camera and all the accessories and cords!
- Binoculars
- Polarized sunglasses
- Garbage bag for dirty clothes or boots for trip home
- Ziploc bags are nice to keep handy for waterproofing items

— The lodge does provide Waders and wading boots if needed.
— Clothing and gear should be packed into a rolling style duffel if possible.
